

5 GENDER EQUALITY

Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls

Aims on creating an academic environment where all genders have equal access to opportunities and resources. This includes promoting gender parity in enrollment and graduation rates across all fields of study. The targets emphasize fostering a campus culture that values diversity and inclusivity, ensuring that policies and practices support equal participation in academic and extracurricular activities. It also aims to eliminate gender-based discrimination and harassment, providing a safe and supportive environment for all students and staff. Furthermore, the targets encourage the integration of gender perspectives into curricula and research, promoting awareness and understanding of gender issues.

The university offers a broad spectrum of courses in various languages, tailored to meet the needs of both undergraduate and graduate students. In the field of International Relations, there are 95 female students enrolled. The Political Science program consists of 25 female students. In the discipline of Applied Jurisprudence, categorized by type of activity, there are 128 female students. Furthermore, the International Economics and Management program stands out as the largest, with an enrollment of 137 female students. In total, the university boasts an enrollment of 990 students, highlighting a remarkable demographic diversity within the institution, with female students constituting 39.9% of the overall student body engaged in a range of academic programs.

A pivotal policy aimed at fostering gender equality in education has been established for master's degree students. As stipulated in the Decree of the Cabinet of Ministers dated August 15, 2022, tuition fees for women enrolled in master's programs at state universities are fully subsidized by the state budget. This initiative has resulted in the funding of tuition for 109 female students, accounting for 39.2% of the enrollment at the University of World Economy and Diplomacy (UWED) in 2023. This progressive measure significantly enhances access to higher education for women, thereby promoting equitable opportunities in advanced academic pursuits.
